

- 1. Write a shell program that takes one parameter (your name) and displays it on the screen.

```
#!/bin/bash name=$1 echo
"Your name is: $name"
```

- 2. Write a shell program that takes a number parameters equal to the last digit of your roll number and displays the values of the built in variables such as $#, $0, and $* on the screen

```
#!/bin/bash count=$1 echo
"Number of parameters: $#"
"Script name: $0" echo "All parameters: $*"
```

- 3. Write a script that displays the values of the following environment variables i) SHELL ii) PWD

```
#!/bin/bash echo
"SHELL: $SHELL"
echo "PWD: $PWD"
```